WE'RE FOR AMERICA/AMERICANS!

A New York Court has ruled that a young woman who sees to recover damages for a sprained ankle need not show it to the Jury. Thus the emancipation of the sex goes on in spite of all hindering influences.

The Free-silver fellows are busy now telling what great things they are going to do in 1900. In view of the fact that they failed to do what they said they would in 1896, their claims must be taken with a few grains of salt.

SINATOR J. K. JONES has discovered that it was "the partisan vote" that beat BRYAN. Thanks, JONES; as a discoverer you are a peach. We have been thinking all along that it was "the non-partisan vote" of the Honest Money Democrats that cooked Mr. BRYAN's bird of the genus Auser.

BECAUSE the returns of one county in the Tenth Virginia District were certified as for "JACOB TOST," while the returns from the other counties in the District were for "J. TOST," the State Board of Canvassers of Virginia threw out the vote of that county, thereby changing the result in the District and giving a plurality to FLOON, the Silver Candidate for Congress. Of course, BRYAN would not indorse such a flimsy act on the part of his new party friends the Popocrats!

AMONG the minor results of the election, says Harper's Weekly, one of the happiest is the apparent extinction of ALGEBRA. Upon the whole he has been quite the most dangerous enemy to American institutions of all the ruffianly gang which has broken out of the forecastle of the Ship of State and attempted to occupy the quarter-deck and seize the helm. From the adverse majority of 100,000 under which he was buried when the people got their first fair chance at him it is to be hoped and believed that he will never emerge.

THE ZOLLER FUND.

Help For a Newspaperman Who Lost All By Fire.

A few days ago THE LEDGER printed an open letter from Mr. John W. Zoller, Editor of The Tribune Democrat of Mt. Olive, asking aid to reestablish his paper.

Mr. Zoller's loss was total, reaching some $4,000, and his property of such a character that it was unsalvageable.

In response to the appeal THE LEDGER acknowledges the following contributions:

Professors William T. Berry, $10.00
Messrs. A. J. McCarthy and Geo. Richardson of The Times Democrat, and C. D. McCarty, D. P. Hays and W. W. Hill of The Pennsylvania Gazette, $10.00

The above was accompanied by the following letter:

THE LEDGER'S PROPHECIES FULFILLED.

McKinley's Election Has Restored Confidence and Given a Big Boom to Business.

"Advance Agent of Prosperity."

THE LEDGER was insistent throughout the late campaign that the election of McKinley meant the restoration of Confidence and the immediate resumption of Manufacturing and Commercial Business throughout the country.

There were those who contended that the very opposite would be the case.

It is useless now to argue the question; it is settled by the results,—and that our readers may see who was right THE LEDGER will give, from day to day, a partial list of the industries that are reviving under the assurance that the incoming Administration will be friendly to American interests.

NEWBROOK, N. Y. The Highland Carpet Works, which have run short-handed and on short time for the last year, started on full time and full handed today. Over 300 hands are employed.

WORCESTER, MASS. The shuttle factory of Dudley & Sons, Wilkesville, started on full time yesterday, after working short hours for a number of months.

NORWICH, CONN. The Falls Company's Mill, one of the largest cotton mills in Eastern Connecticut, which has been shut down for several months, will start on full time on Monday. It employs about 500 hands. The goods made are duck, canvas, and heavy cotton fabrics.

CHESTER, PA. Since the election business has been booming hereabouts. Most of the mills are now running, the last to resume work being the dress goods mill of George C. Hartzel & Co., which started this morning with 200 employees.

A contract for the building of a new steamship at Roach's ship yard for the Old Dominion line has been closed. This means the disbursement of between $300,000 and $250,000 in wages in this city. The new ship will be about 315 feet in length and 45 feet beam. She will be much like the Jamestown and Yorktown in construction and appearance, and but a trifle larger. The work will have to be pushed very rapidly upon her as she is to be completed by August 1st, 1900.

PITTSBURGH. The Consolidated Steel and Wire Company at Braddock has started its works in full, employing 800 men. The Edgar Thomson Steel Works are again in full operation, with a large order for steel rails for use in Japan. The Homestead Steel Works of the Carnegie Company are now operating to their full extent in all departments, 8,000 being employed. The force of employees at the Westinghouse Electric Works was increased today by 100 men.

Preparations for starting the Westinghouse Airbrake Works in full are well under way. A large number of the airbrake workmen will be transferred to the Westinghouse Canadian plant when it is opened. The Schall, Steacy & Denny Rolling Mills at York started tonight after long idleness, giving employment to 400 men.

The Tilt Silk Mill, which had been working at about one third of its capacity, resumed on full time and at full capacity today. Over 300 hands are employed.

WINSTON, CONN. The factory of the Eliza Silk Company in Norfolk started operations today on full time with a full force of hands after several months' shutdown.

NEWARK, ILL. More men went to work here yesterday than at any time within a year. The shop departments, the building furnaces, and the mill rolls of the Western Tube Company, which employ nearly 3,000 men, were put in operation. The workmen have hoisted flags over the mills because of this return of prosperity to them.

TOMASI INSANE. The Well-Known Musical Director Shot Up in Manhattan State Asylum. Achille Tomasi, a musical director, for many years well known in this country, has been transferred from Bellevue hospital, New York city, to the Manhattan state asylum for the insane. He was brought to the hospital by his friend Frederick Solomon, and was pronounced insane.

Signor Tomasi came to this country in 1879 and organized an opera company for children, who sang in "Crispino e la Comare" at the old Olympic theater on Broadway, near Blackwell street. He was an accomplished accompanist and afterwards traveled for several seasons with Brignoli, the tenor. Later he was the director and pianist of a small company, which, under Signor de Vito's direction, went through the country singing "Don Pasquale." Signor Tomasi was afterwards the conductor for the Emma Abbott company and remained in that place for several years. Later he was employed as conductor of the Duff opera company, when Emma Juch was its prima donna, and he directed the performance of "Lakme" given by that troupe in Chicago.

He was recently with the Waltheys opera company, presenting "The Fencing Master," and was leader of the orchestra for the company which sang in this country under the management of the younger Henry Mapleson, a son of Col. J. H. Mapleson. Laura Schirmer Mapleson, who died shortly after her marriage to the conductor, was the prima donna.

Signor Tomasi was at one time the husband of Helen Bertram, from whom he obtained a divorce in 1894. She afterwards married C. J. Henley, the correspondent in her husband's divorce suit. Signor Tomasi is about 50 years old.

NEW YORK'S WOMAN HERMIT. Lives in a Tumbledown House Within a Stone's Throw of the Brooklyn Bridge. Mrs. Emma is known in the neighborhood of her Brooklyn home as the lone hermit of Adams street. For years she has lived within a stone's throw of the Brooklyn bridge terminus, yet has never seen it. Her house, a tumble-down old rookery at 163 Adams street in Lower east, she never stirs outside her door, save once in a long time at night, when she steals out of the basement entrance, after satisfying herself that no one is in sight, and walks the first and second floors of her house and strolls with an antiquated bit of broom. Every day at a certain hour the grocer's boy comes to the basement door with a basket of provisions. His is the only knock that she ever answers. She opens the grated basement door just wide enough for him to pass the basket in gives her order for the next day and slams the door. And that is her only communication with the outside world. She never pays for the groceries, which come from Duck, down at the corner of Adams and Prospect streets, but once a month she sends a bill to a certain man in Boston, who at once sends back a check. What relationship this man holds toward Mrs. Emma no body knows. The neighbors generally believe he is her brother.

POISON FROM THE X RAY. George L. Newcombe Has Queer Results from Continuous Experimentation. (Continued from page 1.) Mrs. Newcombe, who has been successfully experimenting with the X ray, asserts that he has been obliged to renounce further investigation, as it was poisoning him. He had experimented chiefly on his right hand. At first the symptoms were much the same as of ivy or other vegetable poisoning, the sensation being one of itching, burning and smarting. The skin turned a dark purplish brown and a burning sensation increased with each successive exposure. The pain grew so bad, while every hair upon his hand fell out. The nails of the fingers turned purple, lost life and gave indication of falling off. It is his belief that the light is diffused through an aluminum window in the glass tube, being reflected upon the point of experiment by platinum. It is his belief that the infinitely small particles of this platinum were projected upon the flesh between and produced the symptoms of poisoning. Mr. Newcombe thinks infrequent exposures can be made without the slightest injury.

STEALS A MILK CAN. He Was a Japanese Student of Yale and Ran Short of Funds. The course of getting a higher education at Yale might have run smoothly for Ikaiko Deno, a titled young Japanese, if he had not come to New York. But he came and got into trouble. The young fellow got out his lunch pail and he hadn't secured a return ticket. That was why he started to walk to his alma mater, and also why, when he reached New York, he was so early home the other morning, he was tempted to steal a can of milk which stood temptingly on a doorstep.

Mr. Deno was arrested and told the magistrate he was the son of a rich and noble family in Japan and had been sent by the Japanese government to study at Yale. He had been very liberal with spending money apparently and he ran short of funds while visiting New York. It is his belief that the infinitely small particles of this platinum were projected upon the flesh between and produced the symptoms of poisoning. Mr. Newcombe thinks infrequent exposures can be made without the slightest injury.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. The Schenectady Locomotive Works have received several large orders for engines and boilers. It will probably not be long before the entire working force will be employed. Among the railroad now ordering locomotives are the Northern Pacific, Portland and Mount Falls, Delaware and Erie, Michigan Southern and Northern Central.

THE Niphetos rose, Niphetos, is one of the rare survivors. Although it is 50 years since it was first introduced, it is just as popular today in some quarters as ever it was. It may be that this is because it was one of the first of this class to have a fine oval shape which is the form generally preferred by those who love cut flowers. It made its appearance first in France in 1843.

GOULDING'S SUPERB. Little steamboats are displacing gondolas in Venice.

Mr. William A. Tribble, a lawyer of Stanford, and Miss Budie L. Pickett, daughter of ex-Sheriff J. C. Pickett, will marry today at the home of the bride in this county.

There are 550 authorized guides in the Alps. One hundred and four of them have taken a regular course of instruction in their profession and have received diplomas; thirty five of them are between 60 and 70 years of age, and all of them are over 70.

SOUNDS MIGHTY SOUND! Some Sound Money Men Who Have Some Sound Sense!

A Democratic paper at Frankfurt publishes signed statements from Senators Elliston, Stephenson, Noe and Hayward. Sound Money Democrats, agreeing to vote for a revenue bill if an extra session is called.

This it is supposed will have great weight with Governor Bradley in determining whether a session shall be called, as this practically insures the passage of relief measures.

THE REPORT

Of the Venezuela Commission is Virtually Completed, And Will Be in the Hands of the President in a Few Days.

Should the South American Republic Cordially Acquiesce in the Decision of Great Britain and the United States a Formal Report Only Necessary.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Without there being any direct official advice on the matter it is very evident that the report of the Venezuelan commission, which is now virtually completed, will be in possession of the president prior to the completion of the forthcoming message to congress. How the character of the commission's report may be changed from its present standing, in view of the friendly attitude of this country and England toward each other in the settlement of Venezuela's trouble is a subject of much interest and diplomatic interest. That point appears to await official reports from the government at Caracas. Should the arbitration agreement between England and the United States prove acceptable to Venezuela the incident will be harmonious and finally closed in all quarters and not tend to a recalling of past acrimony and recitals of more or less national disagreement that would tend to create circumstances call for detailed statements of the numerous points involved in the controversy as considered by the commission. The report of the commission of the South American republic cordially acquiescing in the decision of the two great powers bearing the brunt of the discussion, a formal report only will be necessary. Judge Brewer, of the commission, was in consultation with the president Wednesday, presumably on the subject, but he declines to give any indication whatever of the purposes of his visit to the state department.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

THE DOCUMENT WILL BE SENT TO CONGRESS Tuesday.

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—A Washington special to an evening paper says: President Cleveland completed his annual message Wednesday. It is said and the copy will go to the printer. Unusual precautions have been taken this year to prevent the contents of the public until they are formally proclaimed in the house. The contents of the foreign relations feature of the message are much in demand in speculative circles. Brokers have had trusted agents here from New York this week prying around the department in an effort to learn the general tenor of the message on Cuban affairs. Nobody has any idea what the message will say in regard to Cuba. It is expected Secretary Olney, who has been in daily communication with the president. The printed message will be read by the full cabinet meeting Friday, December 4, and sent to congress Tuesday, December 5.

NATIONAL GRANGERS

Want J. H. Brigham, of Ohio, Appointed as Secretary of Agriculture.

CANTON, O., Nov. 26.—Maj. McKinley listened Wednesday evening to a formal request for recognition by appointment to the cabinet. A committee of the National grange, an organization of farmers with a membership of 253,000, urged Maj. McKinley to appoint J. H. Brigham, of Ohio, secretary of agriculture. The committee consisted of O. H. Hale, of New York; Geo. H. Horton, of Michigan; W. M. Miller, secretary of the National grange, and agriculturist Aaron Jones, of Indiana, was spokesman.

Maj. McKinley promised to carefully consider the suggestions of the committee and its members deputed to excellent spirit.

Post Office Officials Arrested.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 26.—Walter B. Dinger, stamping clerk in the post office in this city, was arrested by post office inspectors Wednesday on a charge of robbing the mails and was placed under bond in the United States court at the December term. C. H. Taylor, paper distributor, and also charged with the duty of forwarding dead letters, were held on the charge of detaining, secreting and delaying letters. Letters of six months' accumulation had been detained. He also gave bond for his appearance.

Will War Be Declared?

BALTIMORE, Nov. 26.—Gen. Bradley T. Johnson, who is regularly quoted as stating that he believes the meeting of congress on the first Monday in December will make notable by a message from the president recommending the recognition of the Cuban belligerents, and that the following Wednesday will see a proclamation, was by Spain against the United States.

Dead From Blood Poisoning.

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—Charles Paul-haver, who attempted suicide at his home, 436 North Clark street, two months ago by gas asphyxiation on account of business reverses, died at a Alexian Brothers' hospital Wednesday night as the result of blood poisoning. Paul-haver was a prominent wine merchant here and was an influential German.

Shipping War Material.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Nov. 26.—The Bethlehem Iron Co. Wednesday night shipped a big invoice of war material to Portsmouth, Va., and to Waterville arsenal at West Troy, N. Y. The company is a prominent iron pipe and gun material.

James Stone Is Loustville.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 26.—James Stone, the alleged kidnaper of Frank Green, at Mayfield, was brought to Louisville from Paducah at midnight for sale keeping.

A BATTLE

Near Mount Rubia, Twenty-Six Miles West of Havana.

The Government Forces Were Divided Into Three Detachments.

One of 5,000 Men, Another of 10,000 and a Third of 30,000—First Detachment Defeated—Insurgents Retreated While the Second Stormed Mountains.

New York, Nov. 26.—The Ward line steamship City of Washington, which arrived Wednesday from Havana, brought some interesting news of the engagement which occurred recently near Mount Rubia, between the Spanish troops and the insurgent forces led by Gen. Maceo.

Last Saturday the government organ La Luchaba called for trains to convey 10,000 wounded and sick soldiers from Calidreira to Havana. This was the first intimation that had been received that the engagement had been serious in its results. One of the passengers on the City of Washington for obvious reasons did not wish to have his name mentioned, gave an interesting account of how the battle was fought, and to a great extent, it is thought, explains why Gen. Weyler returned to Havana so soon.

Mount Rubia is 25 miles west of Havana and about 13 miles from the northern coast of the island. Gen. Weyler had placed his troops across the island in its narrowest part to prevent Maceo's forces moving toward the east. Then the remaining forces were divided into three detachments, one of 5,000 men, another of 10,000 and the third of 30,000, the latter being led by Gen. Weyler himself. These detachments moved toward the mountains from different directions. The detachment of 5,000 men, which was the first to engage in heavy fighting, was repulsed by Maceo's forces, with 700 wounded and it is not known how many dead. When the second detachment of 10,000 men under command of Gen. Echague arrived and began to storm the mountain they found that the enemy had disappeared. Gen. Weyler, who approached from the trocha, did not have a chance to smolder.

Details are lacking, but it appears that Maceo had another engagement west of Mount Rubia, in which 1,000 of the Spanish troops were wounded. Five hundred of the wounded were brought into Havana by rail and one hundred were brought by water, leaving 1,000 sick and wounded still in the field. Weyler's failure to locate Maceo would appear to have been the cause of his hasty return to Havana.

BATTLESHIP KENTUCKY.

Harvested Nickel and Iron Armor Plates to Be Used in Her Construction.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 26.—Thirteen hundred tons of armor plates, which will be used in the construction of the battleship for the United States battleship Kentucky, were shipped Wednesday to San Francisco from Homestead Wednesday on thirteen cars especially constructed for the purpose. Each car contains one hundred plates, each of which is 15 inches thick, 10 feet high and 14 feet long, each weighing 45 tons. The battleship is to be built at the naval yard at San Francisco by a special train, and is to be placed in the new battleship at the earliest time possible under instructions from the secretary of the navy. It was by special request of the secretary that they were completed so hurriedly.

THE TEXAS.

Debatable Whether the Battleship Can Be Reached in Her Present Condition.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—While the findings of the naval court which investigated the recent foundering of the battleship Texas have not yet reached the navy department, it is learned that without extensive alterations each of the two engines of the Texas can be ordered to sea. It is an admitted fact that evidence was adduced to show that 61 of her compartments leaked when the engine room was flooded and that a leak sprung in any one of them at sea would have surely caused the total loss of the ship. Not only were all the alleged "water-tight" doors found to be abortive, but in the opinion of at least one member of the court, her whole bulkhead system is utterly useless.

Official Vote Is Michigan.

LANSING, Mich., Nov. 26.—The state board of canvassers completed their work Wednesday morning on the canvass of the recent election in this state, with the following result on presidential electors: Total vote, 544,885; McKinley, 293,327; Palmer, 237,551; Levering, 4,008; Palmer, 6,980; Jentley, 1,809. For governor, Pingree led the electoral and entire state ticket by 10,000 in round numbers.

Terrible Suicide.

YONKERS, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Overlooked, this county, was the scene of a terrible suicide. Reports say that Miss Kate Klinecliff, aged 19, went out into a cornfield set fire to a shock of corn and threw herself into the flames. She was discovered but her injuries were too serious and she died. Just before death she gave birth to a living child.

Pat Mitchell Lynched.

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn., Nov. 26.—Passengers arriving here Wednesday from Crawfordsburg, N. C., bring the news that Pat Mitchell, who criminally assaulted a five-year-old child in Vaustrous county, N. C., was taken to the gallows Tuesday night by a mob in the mountains near the North Carolina line and lynched.

Elected Prime Minister of All England.

CANTERBURY, Nov. 26.—In the chapter house of Canterbury Cathedral, Frank Temple, archbishop of Canterbury, was formally elected prime minister of all England. The quaint formality of the seventeenth century was observed.

Four Children at a Birth.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 26.—Mrs. George Brown, of Clark county, Tenn., became the mother of four children, two boys and two girls. Mother and children are doing well.

KENTUCKY NEWS.

The Latest News From All Parts of the Commonwealth.

Will Take a Hand in Putting Down Lawlessness in Woodford County.

Vandalism, Ky., Nov. 26.—Prominent officials who went to Frankfort to see Gov. Bradley in regard to turnpike outrages in Woodford county, were assured by the governor that the state would take a hand in putting down this lawlessness whenever called upon, and would also offer an additional heavy reward for the capture of regulators if requested by county authorities. United States detectives have been ordered to this county to shadow the men who have sent threatening anonymous letters through the mails. The president of the Frankfort, Lexington & Versailles Turnpike Co. said Wednesday they would continue to collect toll on their road and required the expenditure of every cent in their treasury.

Good Position for Gov. Bradley.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 26.—The Courier Journal says Thursday that politicians who are well posted are firmly convinced that Gov. Bradley will not be governor of Kentucky after September, 1907, when he will accept a post of high importance at the hands of President McKinley, who will save it for him, so it is stated, until after the fall election, when Gov. Bradley can be elected by Louisville by Louisville (Gov. Worthington. This appointment is to be in recognition of Bradley swinging the state into the republican ranks.

Big Hydrophobic Fear.

BERKELEY, Ky., Nov. 26.—New McNea, who was bitten by a mad cow, began to feel slinging pain in his hand and arm and hurried to Madison county, where he applied the burglar maldons. It adhered seven times. A. J. Lytes, who was bitten by the same cow, has gone to apply a madstone in Bourbon county. Many others have been bitten and a veritable panic prevails. Cows are giving out every day and every dog in this vicinity has been killed in the future.

Burned a Tollhouse.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 26.—Free turnpike raiders Wednesday night set fire to the tollhouse on the Flat Creek road, about two miles from this city, and it was burned to the ground. It was officially stated Wednesday night that the turnpike directors have decided to commence Thursday collecting toll on all roads in the county, and will supply their keepers with arms for protection and with instructions to kill marauders in the future.

Tragedy Near Tompkinsville.

GLASSBORO, Ky., Nov. 26.—The notorious Red Jacket, one mile from Tompkinsville, a young man, giving his name as Cantrill and his home as Louisville, was shot by a party of men, instantly killed by Walter Leslie, a nephew of ex-Senate Senator Leslie, of Tompkinsville, and of ex-Gov. Leslie, of Louisville. Cantrill was a professional gambler and trouble arose over a game of cards. Leslie surrendered and claims self-defense.

James Albright Acquitted.

WATSON, Ky., Nov. 26.—James W. Albright was acquitted by a jury Wednesday for killing John Lee. At a picnic on July 4 last some one told Lee that daughter had been in killed. Lee was drunk and rushed through the crowd striking at several, finally assaulting Albright, who is about 18 years younger. Albright shot Lee dead.

Colored School Principals Sent.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 26.—The colored school principals of central Kentucky will meet Thursday at the Lexington Hotel. They will be read by J. H. Garvin, W. H. Mayo, J. H. Jackson, G. P. Russell, J. W. Tate and C. W. Reynolds on subjects of interest. An organization may be effected.

Failed to Inspect Sleaz.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 26.—The impeachment charges made against William S. Sleaz, superintendent of Lexington's public works, were not sustained, and the accused was acquitted Wednesday night. Only one member of the court voted for impeachment.

Wester's Chance.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 26.—Congressman W. Godfrey Hunter, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for United States senator, it is said, has 24 votes pledged on the first caucus ballot and eight pledged as second choice. It takes 30 to nominate.

One Person Enough.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 26.—Auditor Stone said Wednesday that he is in favor of abolishing the Eddyville prison. Gov. Bradley will recommend its abandonment to the legislature, it is said, beyond doubt.

Voted in the Wrong Precinct.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 26.—Gov. Bradley Wednesday morning pardoned Ben Hudson, of this state, who was convicted of illegal voting. He had moved across the street and voted in the wrong precinct.

A Call on the Governor.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 26.—Gov. Bradley has been asked to commit the Negro who assaulted Mrs. Green at Nashville to the Eddyville penitentiary, as a mob is being formed.

Desperado Wood Died Gun.

LEXINGTON, Ind., Nov. 26.—William Wood, the desperado shot by Police- man George Frost Monday night, died at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening. Wood was given until the end and shielded other members of the gang.

The Bargain of W. W. Morton.

The bargain of W. W. Morton, a neighbor of President P. J. Berkeham, of the American Homoeopathic society at Augusta, Ga., died at midnight. Loss about $4,000. Fifteen head of milk cattle, five horses and three mules buried to a wife. Morton was a well-to-do man and a member of the Kentucky Homoeopathic society.

New York Weekly Tribune

FOR FARMERS AND VILLAGERS, FOR FATHERS AND MOTHERS, FOR SONS AND DAUGHTERS, FOR ALL THE FAMILY.

With the close of the Presidential campaign The Tribune recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, politics will have far less place and prominence, until another state of National occasion demands a renewal of the fight for the principles for which The Tribune has labored from its inception to the present day and won its greatest victories.

Every possible effort will be put forth and money freely spent to make The Weekly Tribune pre-eminently a National Family Newspaper, interesting, instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family.
